DEDICATION

The staff of the Hancock High School Yearbook would like to join the whole student body in thanking Mr. David Kopf for his help, Mr. Kopf, without your never ending support this yearbook would not have been possible. We appreciate your dedication, patience, guidance and leadership. Thank you for our yesterday's, today's and tomorrow's.

NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

Shannon Heard

The Year Book Staff joins me with pride in presenting to you the 1992-1993 Hancock High School Year Book.

It has been a long year, with tempers flaring, deadlines being met and final copy being submitted. We have strived to create a Book of Memories and not just a Year Book. However, the best memories in life have a tendency to always be in the mind and not on film. I hope in years to come, this Year Book will refresh many of these memories.

Thank you, Mrs. Compston, for being our leader and sponsor. Without you and Mr. Kopf, this Year Book would have been discontinued. Thank you, Year Book Staff, for hanging in and helping to create the best publication possible.

PRINCIPALS

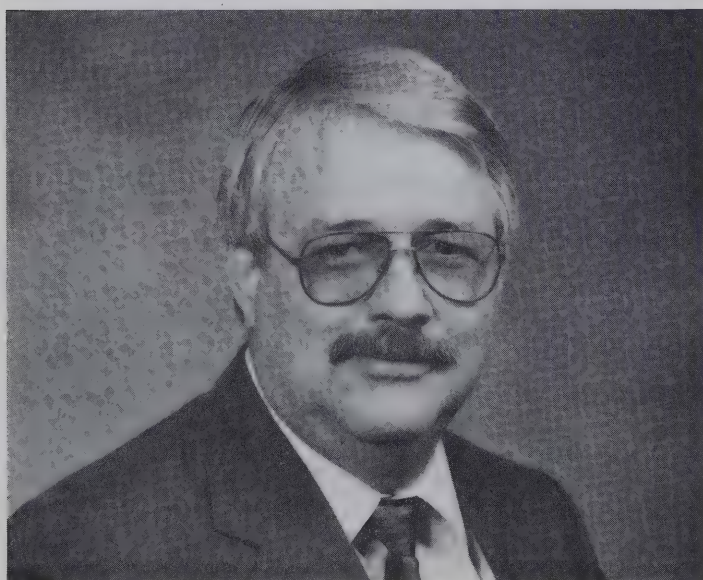

Mr. David Kopf

"A real education starts when your father sends you to college, and isn't really complete until you send your son there."

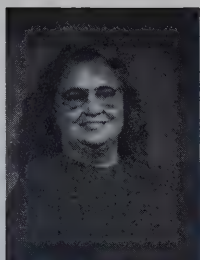

Mr. Donnie Gholston

*"Spare the rod, spoil the child."
(by Finley Peter Dunne)*

Mr. Cecil Powell

"My dream is to see students in pursuit of knowledge, not knowledge in pursuit of students."

Star Student and Star Teacher

Loren Crow

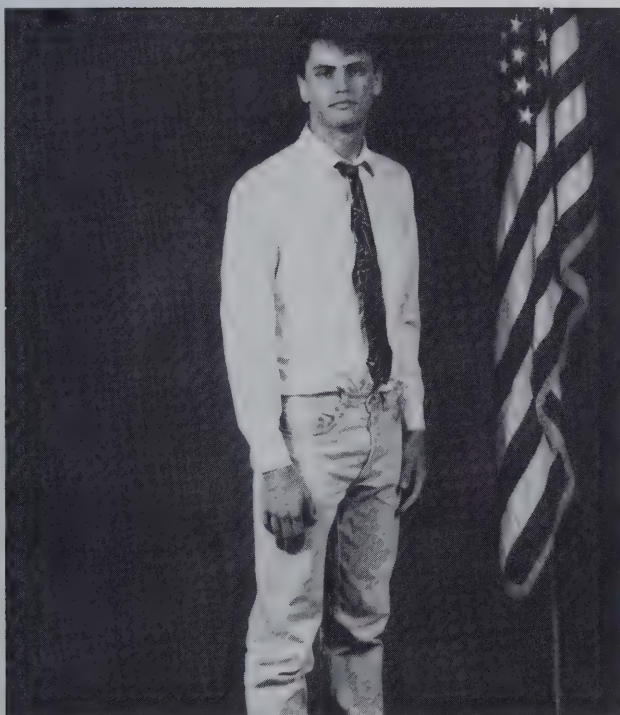

"I plan to attend College at USM and major in theatre. I would like to be a professional screen actor someday. I believe that education is the solution to poverty."

Kay Lovelace

"I view education and my role in its process as more than a phrase of life, but as a vehicle that transports the individual. The distance, speed, and longevity of the journey is dependent upon the mode of travel. A teacher can not fully transport a student to a 'port of call' in a mere fifty-five minutes; he must be actively involved in the realm of subject knowledge, student activities, counseling, and friendship."

CLASS OF '93

SENIOR FAREWELL

*The gang; we fought, we feuded, we loved,
we lost, no matter what it cost.
The day has come to say good-bye, we always knew we'd hug and cry.
As we say our farewells and throw our hats into the air, we will realize just how much we care.
Although we've made it through the years,
now we prepare for our biggest fears.
We taught each other much, from gossiping,
to spilling our guts.
Even as beginners, we knew it would be sad,
but we never thought it would be this bad.
I'll miss you and you'll miss me, but everyone will always miss the Class of '93...*

TARA HOPE SLADE

A special little girl God gave to us one day. You were placed within our arms for us to lead your way.

Your eyes were filled with laughter, and sometimes filled with tears. But God has given each their place with the passing of these years. You stand before us grown, and we don't understand how God has turned our little girl into such a lovely woman.

We can say we love you as these passing moments flee, but as much as we do love you, God Still loves you more. This one thing remember as you open each new door.

We Love You,
Mother, Daddy, Chandra & Kanaly
Nana & Papa
Aunt Tracy, Uncle Brian & Emily
Aunt Wendy, Uncle Dave, Desmond,
Dustan & Drake
Granny Olga Mae & Papa Harold

- HEADLINES -

Think of Christopher Columbus, queasy and shaken as he stumbled onto this continent 500 years ago, looking for someplace else. That's what America felt like in 1992. For much of the world, it was a year for dying.

Race riots and hurricanes left thousands of lives in ruin. So much else we counted on went wrong.

Superman died.

Johnny Carson left the "Tonight Show" after 30 years.

Elvis came back as a U.S. postage stamp.

Thousands starved silently in the dust of Somalia.

Saddam Hussian reeked havoc in Iraq.

Magic Johnson retired a second time from pro basketball and reverted to plain Earvin Johnson.

A Los Angeles jury cleared four white police officers of most charges in the beating of Rodney King, who is black. The perceived injustice exploded in a bloody riot that burned Los Angeles for three days and nights, killing 53 people and causing $1 billion in damages.

The republic of Bosnia-Herzegovina broke away from Yugoslavia. Warfare followed and "Ethnic cleansing" killed thousands.

The American people opted to oust their president in 1992.

Sears announced the discontinuance of their "Big Book".

Predictions were made that more than 25 million people will have AIDS by the end of the decade, and up to 120 million will be infected.

These are only a few of the current events for this year. The pages that follow capture in time more of these memories.

PRESIDENT BILL CLINTON

Bill Clinton, sitting in with the band, turned out an impressive version of "Heartbreak Hotel" as Arsenio Hall gestured approvingly in the musical opening of "The Arsenio Hall Show" taping at Paramount Studios in June 1992. Hall said of the presidential hopeful's talent on the saxophone, "It's good to see a Democrat blowing something other than the election."

HURRICANE DESTRUCTION

Hurricane Andrew struck southern Florida on August 24, 1992, with wind gusting to 164mph and a 12-foot tidal surge that flattened many homes, uprooted trees, flung boats into the streets and wrecked an entire Air Force Base. The hurricane's 54 hour U.S. rampage, the most expensive natural disaster ever in the country, caused an estimated $20 billion in Florida, 1.5 billion in Louisiana and $250 million in the Bahamas.

Hurricane Iniki dealt a direct blow to Kauai, one of the Hawaiian Islands, on September 11, 1992, with winds gusting to 160mph and torrential rain. Twenty-foot waves crashed over coastal highways and telephone service even before the worst of the storm hit. Iniki was the most powerful hurricane in the Hawaiian Islands this century.

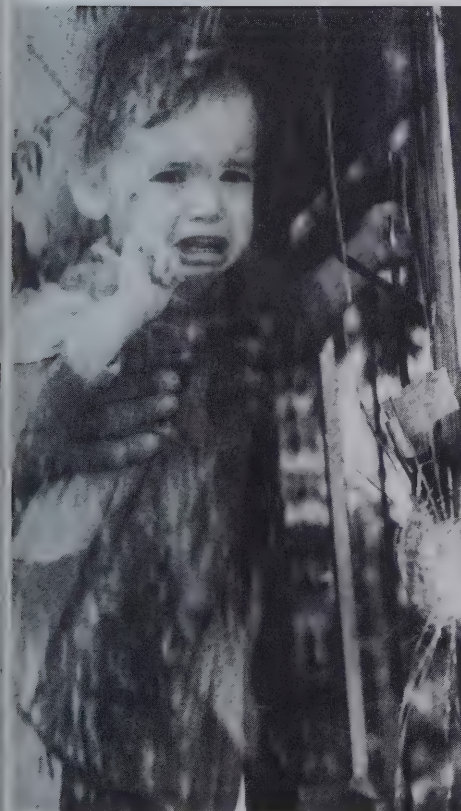

William Figueroa, 12 years old, a.k.a. the "potato kid," waited by a potato vendor's cart outside the NBC studios in New York prior to his appearance on the "Late Night with David Letterman" show.

Figueroa and his family were basking in his new-found celebrity, gained in June 1992, after he spelled "potato" correctly during a spelling bee and Vice-President Dan Quayle did not.

THE BREAK-UP OF YUGOSLAVIA

The territory of Yugoslavia for centuries was a battleground between the Austro-Hungarian and Ottoman empires. Inhabitants of the territory are confronted daily by the shelling, sniper fire and death of war. They take to the streets during the occasional ceasefire, pushing and shoving, trying to buy bread and other staples necessary to live.

It was a new, improved Stefan Edberg who walked off the court in September with his second straight U.S. Open title, the world's NO.1 ranking and $500,000.

Top-seeded Monica Seles also won her second straight U.S. Open women's title in September, defeating NO.5 Arantxa Sanchez Vicario of Spain 6-3,6-3.

THE WORLD SERIES

There's a new flag flying over Canada — the World Series pennant. The Toronto Blue Jays took baseball's championship outside the United States for the first time ever beating the Atlanta Braves 4-3 in 11 innings in game 6.

MTV VIDEO MUSIC AWARDS

The Red Hot Chili Peppers lead singer, Anthony Keidis, displays the MTV Spaceman trophy backstage.

Members of Metallica heavy metal group, pose backstage with the MTV Spaceman trophy after winning The Best Metal/Hard Rock Video award for "Enter Sandman."

Model and MTV vee-jay Cindy Crawford poses for a photographer.

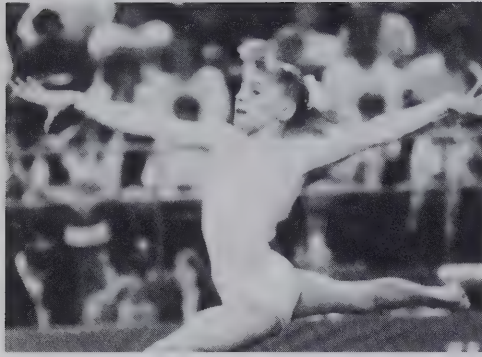

Guns n' Roses celebrate their Michael Jackson Video Vanguard Award for "November Rain."

A.I.D.S.

A grim new vision of the world AIDS Epicemic predicts that more than 25 million people will have the disease by the end of the decade. Marking losses here in the United States, people signed panels of the AIDS Memorial Quilt in New York.

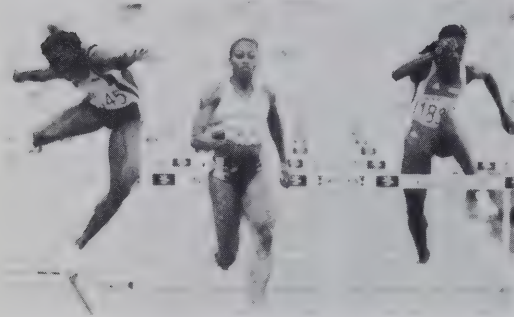

1992 Summer Olympics

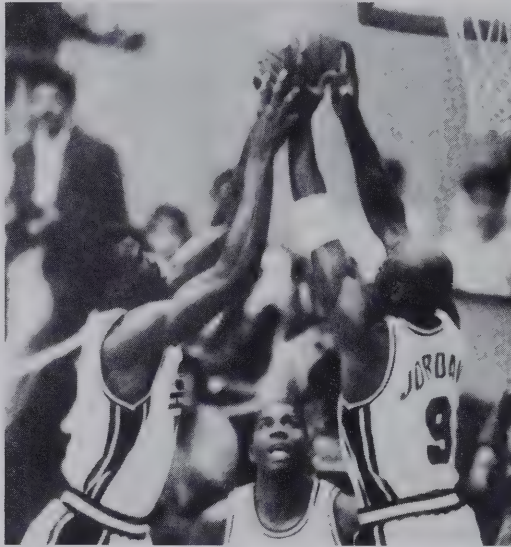

Shannon Miller performing her floor exercises.

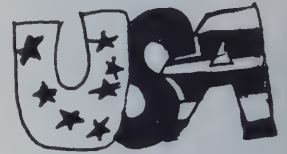

U.S. volleyball player Bob Samuels celebrating victory against Canada.

Gail Devers racing to win the third heat of the second round 100 meter hurdles.

The "Dream Team" during the first half of their semifinal game with Lithuania.

MISS AMERICA-LEANZA CORNETT

On September 19, 1992, 21 year-old Leanza Cornett of Jacksonville, Florida, was named Miss America. She's the 66th Miss America, chosen by a panel of celebrity judges.
